O R D E R

The Court has before it a pro se prisoner petition (Docket Entry No.1) for writ of habeas corpus.<sup>1</sup>

The petitioner has neglected, however, to either pay the fee required for the filing of the petition or submit a properly completed application to proceed in forma pauperis.

Accordingly, the petitioner is hereby GRANTED thirty (30) days from the date of entry of this order on the docket in which to either pay the filing fee of five dollars ($5.00) or submit an application to proceed in forma pauperis. The Clerk will provide the petitioner with a blank application to proceed in forma pauperis along with a copy of Administrative Order No. 93.

<sup>1</sup> The petitioner has not set forth the statutory basis for his claims. However, he does allege that he is "being held in bondage captive as a slave without my freedom and personal rights." The Court construes this language as a claim of unjust imprisonment for which habeas corpus is an appropriate avenue of review.

The petitioner is forewarned that, should he fail to comply with these instructions within the specified period of time, the Court will presume that he is not interested in pursuing this matter and will dismiss the case for want of prosecution. Rule 41(b), Fed.R.Civ.P.

It is so ORDERED.

The "H" is formed by two vertical strokes. The "S" is a continuous loop. The "h" is a simple vertical stroke. The "a" is a small loop. The "r" is a vertical stroke with a small hook. The "p" is a vertical stroke with a small loop at the bottom.
